Safety Town

Safety Town camp returned to New Albany this summer. The camp hosted over 300 children who are entering kindergarten or first grade in the upcoming school year. They have the opportunity to practice bike and pedestrian safety, tour the police and fire stations, and learn about animal and water safety. Children are taught by teachers, New Albany police officers, Plain Township firefighters and teen volunteers.

We would like to thank Safety Town sponsors, New Albany City Council, Plain Township Fire Department and the New Albany Service department for their assistance in making this year's camp a success. We would also like to thank our special guest, The Amazing Giants, for bringing Wonder Woman to our four graduation ceremonies this year.

Special Olympics Torch Run

On June 24th, members of the New Albany Police Department took part in the Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics Ohio. The run began at the station, where officers and New Albany Special Olympic members also came together to sign the state banner. Officers and members passed the torch as they ran from the New Albany Police Department station to the New Albany High School track. The department raised $2,510 for Special Olympics Ohio, contributing to the statewide effort that raised over $48,000.

K9 Amigo Deployment Summary

During the month of June, Amigo and his handler conducted 19 detection deployments with 14 indications, resulting in the seizure of over 60 items and two arrests.

Amigo was also a special Safety Town guest this year, where he assisted the children in learning about animal safety.

Amigo and Officer Rehnert also participated in the Special Olympics Torch Run this month, running the last leg of the race with the rest of the department.
