DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS January 2017

Police Academy Graduations

On January 6th New Albany Police Officers Chad Bauman, Ian McCord and Brandon Stokes graduated from police academy. Officer Stokes graduated from the Ohio Highway Patrol's 136th Basic Police Officer Academy and Officers Bauman and McCord graduated from the Columbus Police Department's 126th Academy. Officer Bauman received the top fitness award for his academy class. For the first time in the Columbus Police Academy's history there was a three way tie for the award. All three officers are currently in their 14 week field training period and are expected to complete the training in April.

DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS January 2017

Citizens Police Academy

New Albany and Gahanna police departments continued to meet this month in order to complete the final preparation for this years' Citizen Police Academy. This years' academy will begin on February 1st, with students taking a bus ride to both police departments where they will be given tours. The academy class was capped at 30 participants. The class filled quickly with half of the participants from New Albany and half from Gahanna. The academy will meet once a week for ten weeks. A gun safety class is being added this year. This will be the first time many of the participants have ever fired a gun. This is the seventh year the City of New Albany has held a citizen police academy but the first year we have partnered with the City of Gahanna. We anticipate the partnership will add a new energy to the academy with new ideas, instructors and resources.

Proclamation

New Albany Mayor Sloan Spalding, on behalf of the council and residents of New Albany, proclaimed January 9, 2017 as Law Enforcement Appreciation Day in New Albany. Mayor Spalding urged all citizens to take the time to thank a police officer for their sacrifice, service and dedication in serving and protecting their community.

A.L.i.C.E (Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, Evacauate)

On January 31st Officer Kelly and Officer Southers taught an A.L.i.C.E (active threat) class at AEP's New Albany facility. Over 80 attended the course which was hosted by the New Albany Chamber of Commerce. After the training, the department received several additional request for the A.L.i.C.E. training.

CAD/RMS (Computer Aided Dispatch and Records Management System) Update

Officers and dispatchers began their initial training on the use of the department's new Computer Aided Dispatch and Records Management System (CAD/RMS). The new system will provide the department with increased efficiencies including the ability to complete accident, offense and incident reports in the field. Previously, officers have returned to the police department to complete much of their work. Training will continue as the go live date in March approaches.

Child ID Event

The police department participated in the Chabad Center's open house on January 29th. The department provided child IDs or driver's licenselike cards to the parents of young children. The cards contain the child's photo, thumb print and physical description. The cards are provided to parents of young children in the event the child is lost or missing in the future. The parents can provide the cards to first responders in order to assist in locating the child. 31 ID cards were created and given out during the event.

Officer Jillyan Will and the Clippers mascot

R.A.D. (Rape Aggression Defense System) Course

The department held a R.A.D. course in January. This was the first class taught by Officer Jill Will. Officer Will was recently trained and certified to teach R.A.D. She taught the course with Officer Leland Kelly who is a veteran instructor. The R.A.D. course includes lectures, discussion and self-defense techniques suitable for women of all ages and abilities. The department offers R.A.D. courses in an effort to prepare potential female victims to defend themselves against violent crimes.

SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICER January 2017

K-9 Drug Sweep:

The police department, in conjunction with the New Albany Plain Local School District, Franklin County Sheriff's Office, Clinton Township Police Department, and the Pickerington Police Department conducted a K9 Drug sweep at the high school on January 17th. The K9 teams swept two parking lots along with randomly selected hallways and classrooms. The K9s alert twice but no drugs were recovered. The parents of students were notified of the drug sweep in advance but were not given the date of the event.
