DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS October 2018

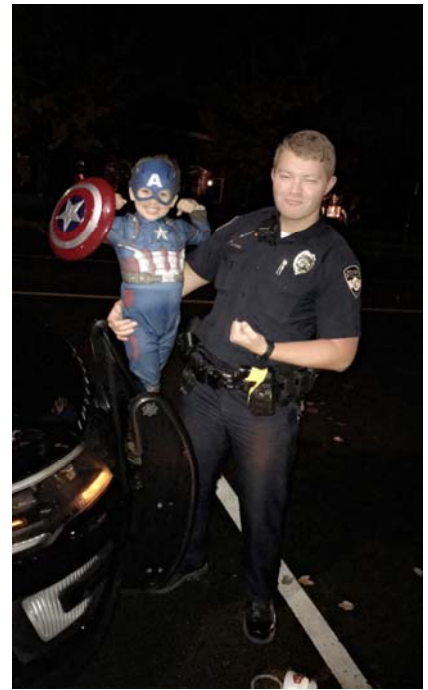

Halloween 2018

Officer Kelly wore the Lego Police Officer mask and hands costume around the New Albany's ELC, primary and intermediate building for their Halloween parties. The look was a huge success and both students and staff complimented the attire.

Officer Klingler, Police Clerk Lauren Johnson and Dispatcher Lindsay Allen all represented the police department at the Healthy New Albany Halloween Event. The police department provided child ID's, a cruiser for the children to tour, and an officer to answer questions. Approximately 700 children participated in this event.

Officers from all three shifts participated in New Albany's beggars night by patrolling the neighborhood and handing out candy to trick or treaters. Despite the wet weather, there was a good turnout with no reported incidents.

Officer Joe Rehnert participated in the state-wide D.U.I. Enforcement effort during Halloween. Officer Rehnert made several traffic stops for moving and equipment violations. The saturated patrols focus on impacting the amount of traffic deaths and injuries that often stem from impaired and/or reckless driving during the holidays.

DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

October 2018

Health Fair

Officer Rehnert participated in the Discover Card Health Fair. He was at the event to answer questions about crime statistics, victim's rights, home security ideas, and answer general questions about the department and its services to the community.

Newest Officer

Officer Steven Persinger successfully completed his field training program. After 29 weeks at the Columbus Police academy and 14 weeks in field training the department is excited to have him on patrol.

Training

Chief Greg Jones, Sgt. Kris Daniels and Sgt. Garrett Fernander all attended the Attorney General's Conference in Columbus. They attended training sessions on various topics including traffic crash investigation, legal update, missing person responses and opiate addiction.

Police Chaplain

The department would like to introduce the new police chaplain. Chaplain Debra Lowery has completed most of her orientation this month. She has met with most sworn and civilian staff to introduce herself and gather ideas from employees as to how she may better serve the organization.

Drug Take Back

Officers Rehnert and Nauman worked the National Drug Takeback Day held at Plain Township Fire Department. Officers recovered 23 pounds of pills during the event.

Compliments

Officers Hamilton and Nauman along with Dispatcher Ham received compliments this month on their performance. Officer Nauman was complimented on his professionalism, friendliness, and thoroughness while investigating a theft. Dispatcher Ham was complimented on the same call for the same reasons and for being informative during the original phone call that reported the theft. Officer Hamilton was complimented on social media for going above and beyond his duty while handling a crash.

The department received a card complimenting Dispatcher Lindsay Allen after she assisted a woman who came to the department for help. The woman became lost after she encountered the closure and detour for Dublin Granville Road. Dispatcher Allen, who was one of two dispatchers on duty, left the dispatch center and had the woman follow her to her destination. Dispatchers routinely provide directions to people who call or come into the police department. Using her own vehicle to lead someone to their destination is well above what is expected of her as a dispatcher. Her actions exemplified the departments mission and values.

New Patrol Bikes

New bikes for bike patrol are in service and second shift has utilized the bikes for directed patrol and beggar's night. General comments about the new bikes have been positive. The bikes replaced a variety of bikes that have been used previously. The bikes that were replaced were from 10 to 15 years old and some will be used for training.

October 2018

Mass Casualty Training

In a joint training exercise, New Albany Police Department hosted an active threat exercise at a local business with Gahanna Police Department, Plain Township Fire Department and several other area fire departments. The training exercise allowed agencies to train and identify strengths, weaknesses, and opportunities for improvement. Dispatcher Allen also participated in the training. She acted as the dispatcher during the training and was on site to observe what occurs during such an event.
