DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS
September 2017

A&F Challenge

Officers provided security for the 2017 A&F Challenge on September 8th. The event proceeds benefited SeriousFun Children's Network, a global network of camps and programs for kids with serious illnesses and their families .

City of Westerville Cops and Kids Day

Officer Ryan Southers represented the department at Westerville's Cops and Kids Day on September 10th. Thousands of children attend the event along with police departments from around the state. The New Albany Police Department's pick up won second place in the cruiser competition.

Walking Classic

Officers provided security and traffic control for the 13th annual New Albany Walking Classic. The walking route was altered this year because of the round-about construction at US 62 and Greensward. The new route worked well thanks to the planning efforts of the event organizers and city staff.

September 2017

Department Tour

Officer Terry Nemeth led 25 cub scouts on a tour of the facility on September 13th. The children were highly inquisitive, well behaved and genuinely interested in learning about law enforcement. The troop leader thanked the department and Officer Nemeth, he wrote:

> "I wanted to thank the Department for having Den 8 and family in for the tour last week. Special thanks to Officer Nemeth, professional, courteous and patient for the amount of continuous questions that were asked. We had 25 or so kids and parents, and everyone had a good, educational time."

Department Training

The police department in cooperation with the Ohio Department of Public Safety hosted an Advanced Roadside Impaired Driving Enforcement (ARIDE) training in September. Many New Albany officers along with officers from other agencies attended the training. The training better prepares officers to assess and remove drug impaired motorists from the roadways.

All of the department's officers attended advanced firearms training in September. The training included TASER recertification, a review of the department's use of force directive and firearms training
