D.U.I Enforcement

The department had additional personnel on patrol during the holidays in an effort to remove impaired drivers from the road. As part of the Franklin County DUI Task Force, we regularly have additional officers on patrol during many holidays throughout the year.

Crisis-Intervention Team Training

Officer Steven Persinger attended Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training this month. The week long training focuses on improving law enforcement's response to those struggling with mental illness. New Albany Police Department emphasizes the need for all of its officers to receive this critical training and certification. The department wishes to ensure that officers better understand the paradigms surrounding mental illness and learn strategies to use in best serving those in need.
