PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS BELOW. BY SUBMITTING THIS APPLICATION YOU ARE ACKNOWLEDGING THAT YOU HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE STATEMENTS BELOW.

I affirm that the information provided by me on this application for employment is true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that any false statement given on this application for employment may be considered just cause for my immediate dismissal. I authorize investigation of all information related to items listed on this application for employment and release all persons, schools, companies, corporations, and other agencies to provide information concerning my background.

I acknowledge that I, voluntarily and of my own free will, have applied for employment with the City of New Albany with the understanding that the City may use a variety of screening procedures to evaluate my qualifications and suitability for appointment. I have been advised that these screening procedures may include, but are not limited to, interviews, criminal record checks, driving record checks, polygraph examinations, written testing, reference checks, background investigations, psychological evaluations, medical examinations, and drug testing. I hereby understand that I would not be required to actually participate in a psychological evaluation, medical examination, and drug testing until after I have reached a conditional offer of employment. I also acknowledge that I may be subject to other screening procedures, not specifically listed above. I further acknowledge that any such screening procedures, as reasonable required by the City of New Albany, are a prerequisite to my appointment to a position with the City of New Albany.

I further acknowledge that the City of New Albany cannot guarantee the confidentiality of the results of, or information obtained through, the aforementioned screening procedures. Rulings of the Ohio Supreme Court relative to the Public Records Act indicate that, with certain enumerated exceptions, records maintained by a governmental entity are a matter of public record and, should a proper request be made by a member of the public for such records, the governmental entity would be required to make such records available to that member of the public within a reasonable period of time. Employment related documents, with the exception of medical records, maintained by the City of New Albany related to the aforementioned screening procedures do not appear to fall within the enumerated exceptions.

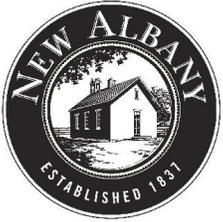

I further understand that the City of New Albany has a commitment to maintain an alcohol and drug free workplace and unless otherwise prohibited by law, I may be required to submit to a drug test for the illegal use of controlled substances if I am offered a position. The illegal use of controlled substances will result in disqualification from consideration for employment and any offer of employment withdrawn. If I am employed, I acknowledge that I may be required to submit to alcohol and/or drug testing under certain circumstances.

I hereby understand and acknowledge that, unless otherwise defined by applicable law, any employment relationship with the City of New Albany is of an "at will" nature, which means that the Employee may resign at any time and the Employer may discharge the Employee at any time for any reason, except as otherwise determined by the Charter and Ordinances of the City of New Albany or applicable law. It is further understood that "at will" employment relationship may not be changed by any written document or contract unless such change is specifically acknowledged in writing by the authorized executive of the City.

Therefore, in consideration of my employment application being reviewed and considered by the City of New Albany I, being at least 18 years of age and under no legal disability on behalf of my heirs and assigns, hereby release and agree to hold harmless, the City of New Albany and any of its agents, employees, or related officials from any and all liability, whatever the type and nature, resulting from the administration of any such screening procedures and/or the release of the results there from.

I further understand that my application for employment will be rejected if I decline to sign this consent and thereby decline to be tested, if my results are confirmed to be positive for the presence of illegal drugs or legal drugs for which I cannot submit sufficient proof that such drugs were legally obtained and used, or if masking agents are detected in any specimen I provide as part of the testing procedure.

I hereby knowingly and voluntarily consent to participate in a substance abuse screening and authorize the City of New Albany to conduct, through its designated testing laboratory or other licensed/certified medical professionals/technicians, said screening. A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies (CRA). There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, DC 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment - or to take another adverse action against you - must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a CRA (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if: a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report; you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file; your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud; you are on public assistance; you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days. In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You can dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a CRA may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than ten years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A CRA may provide information about you only to people with a valid need - usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A CRA may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a CRA, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violated the FCRA, you may be able to sue them in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.
