DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

March 2019

Congratulations Officer Conn

Officer Caleb Conn received a compliment from a motorist that he had stopped for a traffic violation. The note included a statement from an occupant who wrote, " "We were pulled over on Wednesday night around midnight speeding in a brown Mini Cooper with a 200-pound Saint Bernard in the back. We were on our way to Med Vet. I was crying when the officer knocked on the glass, and when we rolled the window down he laughed and said, "You have Beethoven with you." We told him that Riggs had a seizure and we were on our way to Med Vet. After a minute, he said, "Go...and be safe!" We need to thank him for that. Our Riggs is okay today. Thinking back, he had to laugh...a saint in a Cooper. I am including a picture of our Riggs in the Cooper on a good trip. We did not get the officer's name, but if you could get this message to him please, we want to thank him again. Riggs thanks him, too!"

New Officer'

The department currently has three new officers in two different police academies. Chase Blankenship and Codey Ratliff are in the Ohio Highway Patrol's Basic Police Academy. Michael Cohrs is in the Columbus Police Department's Academy. The Ohio Highway Patrol held a chief's luncheon so that departments could visit with their new officers. Chief Greg Jones and Sergeant Garrett Fernander attended the luncheon and had lunch with Officers Blankenship and Ratliff. Both officers are doing well and are scheduled to graduate in June.

Officer Jacob Steinbrueck completed Phase III of his Field Training Program and has moved to his final stage of training. He is performing well and after 29 weeks at the Columbus Police academy and 14 weeks of field training he is scheduled to begin solo patrol in April.

K9 Amigo

Officer Joe Rehnert introduced his new partner, Amigo, to city council on March 5th. He detailed the training that they completed to become a K9 team and demonstrated Amigo's ability to find drugs. Since the K9 team were paired up and began training in December of 2018, they had been using an older cruiser with a few temporary modifications. In March the purpose built K9 cruiser was delivered and is in service with Officer Rehnert and Amigo.

Drug Investigation

The department executed a search warrant at a New Albany home in connection with a drug investigation. Pills, marihuana, and THC oil were seized along with drug activity intelligence. Felony charges were filed on the suspect and he is awaiting his court date.

Evidence from the Search Warrant.

Electronic Citations

New Albany Police Department continues to work with Brazos/Tyler Technologies to implement electronic citations. This project has been significantly delayed due to changes within the vendor and configurations related to the interoperability with Franklin and Licking County Courts. Thus far, significant work has been accomplished and the project is anticipated to be completed in June. Once finished, this project will reduce the amount of time motorists are detained and will create efficiencies for the officer on the street and administrative staff by:

- Reduces the use of paper
- Eliminates travel time to court(s) for clerking citations as the system will automatically upload data into court and public safety records systems
- Ability to print required legal documents from the cruiser
- Reduced time spent on traffic stops
- Minimizes data entry errors
