Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies

We are proud to announce that the New Albany Police Department was awarded National Accreditation through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA). The department has joined 66 other agencies out of approximately 1,000, law enforcement agencies in Ohio who are accredited. Through the efforts of the entire police department, the Commission found that the department was in full compliance with all 155 applicable standards covering every aspect of our public safety mission.

The three year process included a self-assessment step where policies and operations were brought into compliance with CALEA's proven standards. At the end of the self-assessment the department participated in two mock assessments before beginning the CALEA web-based assessment and the on-site assessment. CALEA assessors then submitted their report to the Commission for consideration. During the national conference in Covington, Kentucky, the department participated in a public review hearing to discuss the findings of the assessment. The final credentialing decision was made by the Board of CALEA Commissioners on November 16th.

Property Destruction

When the police department's property room reaches its maximum capacity, the department purges items that are contraband, unclaimed property, or are no longer needed as evidence. In compliance with the Ohio Revised Code and with the courts authorization, the department destroyed, donated or converted to department use over 2180 items this past month. The property destruction process is lengthy and disposing of the items took several days.

DARE Graduation

2019 Fall DARE classes began on September 3rd and graduation was held at the McCoy Center for the Performing Arts on November 25th. 191 fifth graders graduated from the twelve week fall session. The remaining fifth graders will begin the twelve week program on February 3, 2020.

Thank You

The New Albany Police Department would like to extend a thank you to the many citizens who were kind enough to bring in Thanksgiving meals and treats for the department throughout the week. The staff thoroughly enjoyed the food and the thoughtfulness makes a big difference to the officers and dispatchers who are working and away from family and friends on Thanksgiving!

Training Academy

Recruit J. Ferrebee continues to train at the Ohio State Highway Patrol Academy. He is projected to graduate in January 2020 after 22 weeks of targeted training in subjects like dynamic driving, state and constitutional law, defensive tactics, criminal investigation, traffic law enforcement, stops and approaches and firearms. The department looks forward to his impending graduation and the start to his field training regimen.

Community Events

The New Albany Police Department worked the Thanks for Giving 4– Miler on Thanksgiving morning. Officers maintained road closures and detours to enhance and promote a safe event. Officer Nauman and Officer Steinbrueck attended the Wentworth Crossing Neighborhood Block Watch Party as part of the block watch program.

Firearms Training

All officers attended nighttime firearm training this month. Officers were challenged with reactionary and environmental scenarios. The department strives to ensure officers remain knowledgeable and proficient in all aspects of the law enforcement profession.

Dispatcher Mary Ham and I participated in the First Responder Mental Health and Wellness Training on November 7th and 8th. Presenters from Arizona, Idaho, and Washington shared their experiences and provided attendees with resources, mental health tools, and information to implement within their departments and communities. By discussing the real 21st century issues that are consistently facing our first responders and their families, this training provided awareness, resources, and action items to combat PTSD, depression, suicide, addiction, and stress. We had the opportunity to learn about national best practices in overall mental health and about wellness programs.
