Swearing In

Mayor Sloan Spaulding swore in five officers and a new sergeant during the September 17th City Council meeting. Terry Nemeth, who previously served as a detective, was sworn in as the newest sergeant. The new officers attended either the Columbus Police Department's Academy or the Ohio Highway Patrol's Basic Academy. Officer Conn came to New Albany from another police department near Cincinnati and did not need to attend another police academy.

Community Events

A number of community events were held in September including the A&F Challenge, New Albany Walking Classic, First Responders Night and Oktoberfest. The department provided security and traffic control for the events. All the events were well attended and successful.

Patriot Day and National Day of Service and Remembrance

In honor of Patriot Day, community members and organizations showed their appreciation for the police department. Officers and dispatchers spoke with those who visited the department and thanked them for their support. The department is fortunate to have such a supportive community. Patriot Day on September 11th honors the memory of the nearly 3,000 people who were killed in the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks.

Letters from Miller House Students

Probation Officer Boyd, Sgt. Strahler, Ofc. Hall, Ofc. Burr & Ofc. Catanese with community members who dropped off ice cream for the department.

Bike Helmet Program

The City partnered with Johnson's Ice Cream to provide free ice cream coupons to children wearing a bicycle helmet while riding their bikes. The majority of coupons were handed out by our bike officers. The program ended on September 30th and over 450 coupons were handed out. Of those, 374 were redeemed for free ice cream. We want to thank Johnson's Ice Cream for their partnership and efforts to help promote safety in New Albany. Below is a letter we received from a community member regarding this program:

"Good morning. I wanted to say a big thank you to the officer that is watching out for the high school kids. My son is enjoying the fine weather and riding his bike to school each day. Yesterday, he was approached by the officer who gave him a free ice cream coupon for wearing his safety helmet each day. I asked him what was going through his head when the officer was approaching. He said he was nervous he did something wrong but had no idea what it could be. He is very particular about doing everything correct. I just love that you are trying to make good relationships with the kids. That is what the world needs and that is why my family and I are so happy and honored to live in New Albany, OH."

III. Activity Detail

At the September 18 City Council meeting, we celebrated the ceremonial swearing in of Officers Blankenship, Cohrs, Conn, Ratliff, and Steinbrueck and promotion of Sergeant Nemeth. It was a time of pride and excitement for our department personnel and the officers' family members as Chief Jones introduced each officer to Council and we witnessed the traditional pinning of the badge.

Through my membership in the Central Ohio Law Enforcement Chaplains Team (COLECT), NAPD has access to well-trained, experienced chaplains should the need arise for mutual aid. From this group, I have arranged for a Westerville Police Department chaplain to serve as a back-up chaplain for NAPD. Chaplain Jon Bull visited the station and met available officers to be familiar with our department.
