DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

December 2019

Shop With A Cop

On December 11th, Officer Southers and Officer Kelly participated in Pataskala P.D.'s annual Shop with a Cop event in which several underprivileged youths are partnered up with local police officers from the surrounding areas. Both officers were paired with two different children at a local Target store where the kids were allowed to spend up to $200.00 each. Both officers and the children enjoyed the event which ended at a local church with a pizza party.

SOAR Recognition Award

The State of Ohio Accreditation Resource Coalition (SOAR) recognized Officer Leland Kelly for his commitment to public safety and community relations through outstanding and/or continuing contributions such as volunteerism, community activism, distinguished service and performance beyond job requirements. The award was named after the late Douglas L. Knight, former Chief of Police of the Vandalia Police Department and CALEA commissioner.

At the SOAR meeting on December 13th, the award was presented to Officer Kelly by SOAR President, Sgt. Phillip Wessler of the Beavercreek Police Department.

Congratulations to Officer Kelly!

Special Olympics

Members of the New Albany Police Department took part in the annual scrimmage with the New Albany Special Olympics basketball team. The event was organized by Officer Kelly and the Special Olympics team went up against the police department and Plain Township Fire Department. The Special Olympic athletes as well as their friends and family had a wonderful time during the game, as the team prevailed over the first responders with a score of 70-15. All participants enjoyed a pizza party after the game.

III. Activity Detail

Chaplain activities this month included ride-a-longs with two officers who recently completed field training with the goals of becoming better acquainted and sharing about the resources of the chaplain program.

Hilliard Police Department kindly invited me to its chaplain candidate orientation to answer questions about police chaplaincy and to act as a resource for its new chaplains. NAPD has been serving as a support for Hilliard PD in the development of its chaplaincy program.

As part of the Mid-Ohio CISM team, I served at a critical incident debriefing for personnel from a nearby police department and responding sheriff's office.
