

A PROCLAMATION CELEBRATING ARBOR DAY IN NEW ALBANY, OHIO

WHEREAS, in 1872, J. Sterling Morton proposed to the Nebraska Board of Agriculture that a special day be set aside for the planting of trees, and

WHEREAS, this holiday, called Arbor Day, was first observed with the planting of more than a million trees in Nebraska, and Arbor Day is now observed throughout the nation and world, and

WHEREAS, in New Albany, our arborists, forester, and staff monitor and maintain more than 20,000 street trees; and

WHEREAS, trees in our city increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas, and beautify our community, and

WHEREAS, trees can be a solution to combating climate change by reducing the erosion of our precious topsoil by wind and water, cut heating and cooling costs, moderate the temperature, clean the air, produce life-giving oxygen, and provide habitat for wildlife, and

WHEREAS, trees are a renewable resource giving us paper, wood for homes, fuel for fires, and countless other wood products, and

WHEREAS, trees, wherever they are planted, are a source of joy and spiritual renewal.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Sloan Spalding, Mayor of the City of New Albany, Counties of Franklin and Licking, State of Ohio, on behalf of the Council do hereby proclaim April 29, 2022 as ARBOR DAY, and urge all citizens to plant trees to uplift the heart and promote the well-being of this and future generations.

WHEREBY, I set my hand and seal this 29th day of April, 2022.
