DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

November 2020

Thank You

The department would like to express their appreciation to the many citizens who kindly donated meals and treats for the Thanksgiving holiday. The staff enjoyed the food and the thoughtfulness of our local businesses and residents makes a big difference to officers and dispatchers who spend their holidays working.

Range Training

The department held their annual nighttime firearm in service training this month. Officers were challenged with reactionary and environmental scenarios. All officers completed the training and are regularly participating in training that includes scenarios, de-escalation techniques, judgment and reviews of department directives as part of the agencies continual training practices.

De-Escalation Training

Sergeants Terry Nemeth and Garrett Fernander attended an instructor's course for De-Escalation strategies this month. The sergeants learned to recognize contaminated thinking, were taught tools to utilize in creating discretionary time while on calls, discussed communication strategies and received information on accurately identifying mental health issues. Sergeants Nemeth and Fernander received their certification and will work to train department members in December 2020.
