De-Escalation Training

The department conducted de-escalation training for officers and dispatchers this month. Sergeant Fernander and Sergeant Nemeth conducted 4 hour bocks of training on the verbal and tactical techniques for de-escalation. This training included a presentation that covered case studies with analysis by officers, indicators of suicide by police and ambush attack survival. Both sergeants recently completed an instructor level de-escalation training course which allows the department to conduct de-escalation training often and without the scheduling restrictions of external training courses.

New Albany Santa Parade

The City of New Albany and Plain Township held a "Santa Parade" for residents in late December. The Plain Township Fire Department, New Albany Service Department and New Albany Police department escorted Santa through neighborhoods using the same route used for the 4th of July Parade. Residents were provided updates on Santa's location to make sure children didn't miss him. Santa exchanged his sleigh for a chance to ride in the bucket of the fire department's ladder truck.

New Albany Food Pantry

Third shift officers and dispatchers challenged each other to donate to the New Albany Food Pantry. They collected Christmas Collection Box and provided a large amount of products to help support the pantry during the month of December.

Operation Santa's Sleigh

The New Albany Police Department was proud to be a part of Operation Santa's Sleigh which was organized by Light Ohio Blue. Police cruisers from agencies all over the central Ohio area drove slowly around Nationwide Children's Hospital in downtown Columbus. The huge line of police cruisers with their red and blue lights on and Christmas music playing were on display for all the children in the hospital.

During the month of December, Amigo and his handler conducted 15 detection deployments. He had 10 indications and seized over 25 items. As a result of their work, there were four arrests made.

Amigo and his handler, Officer Rehnert, passed their annual Special Purpose K9 certification test in December. Amigo was tested in narcotics detection, tracking and article searches. In Ohio, K9 teams must be certified annually by an Ohio Peace Officer Commission examiner.
