New Officers

The New Albany Police Department's newest officers, Emilee Downing and Ariel Marion, graduated from the Columbus Division of Police Training Academy this month. Both completed 31 weeks of rigorous training that included constitutional law, physical fitness, firearms, dynamic driving, de-escalation and defensive tactics. Both have begun their 14 week field training program at the department. We welcome both Officer Downing and Officer Marion to the department!

4th of July

The City of New Albany's 4th of July festivities returned this year. The parade theme was "Honoring Frontline Heroes" and Chief Jones was named one of the three grand marshals, along with Plain Township Fire Chief Rupp and Mount Carmel New Albany President, Diane Doucette. The department worked the morning 5K, parade, festival and fireworks successfully without any major incident. As the first major event to return since the pandemic, the department was pleased to be able to interact with New Albany residents and ensure the safety and security of the community!

DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

July 2021

Community Engagement

The department gave a presentation to a group with Healthy New Albany's Senior Connections. Detective McCord spoke to the group about safety, fraud, and police department programs and resources. Every year, millions of elderly Americans fall victim to some type of financial fraud. Seniors are often targeted because they are generally trusting, polite and many have financial resources. Fraud committed against the elderly can result in significant losses for the victims and investigating the cases can be challenging.

New Position

The New Albany Police Department congratulates former dispatcher Megan Mains on her new role as Property Custodian. Megan has been with the department as a dispatcher since 2015 and was selected to fill the newly created civilian property room position. She will work closely with our former property officer as she transitions to her new role. Congratulations, Megan!
