Peletonia

The annual Peletonia Ride weekend took place over August 6th and 7th in New Albany. This event included cycling, entertainment and volunteering to raise funds for cancer research. Thousands of cyclists traveled through the city and the department provided traffic control for the event. Although the storms canceled Sunday's events early, the event went smoothly with no major traffic or security issues.

Touch a Truck

New Albany's annual Touch a Truck event was held on August 20th. Officer Downing represented the police department and brought a cruiser to display for children to interact with. Administrative Assistant Cates and Police Clerk VanOrder provided over 150 children with Child ID cards at the event as well.

Community Outreach– Block Watch, National Night Out

The New Albany Police Department Block Watch program hosted a barbeque for the Cedarbrook neighborhood this month. Officer Burr was behind the grill as 75 participants came to enjoy delicious food and time with their neighbors and block watch officer.

Officer Rehnert attended National Night Out hosted by Whitehall Police Department. K9 Amigo and Officer Rehnert provided a narcotics and evidence search demonstration for attendees.

Officer Mills attended the First Friday Cop Car Cruise-In held in the City of Delaware. Officer Mills interacted with citizens and children had the opportunity to get inside of a New Albany Police Department cruiser.

Operation Times Up

New Albany Police partnered with Dublin Police and conducted a two-day human trafficking operation as part of a large statewide initiative. One operation was in Hilliard and one was in New Albany. Several arrests were made and several of those arrested were referred to services in an effort to help them improve and change the direction of their lives. The New Albany Police department contributed to the number of firearms and counterfeit currency recovered in addition to the arrests. Chief Jones explains that “working collaboratively with other law enforcement agencies and private partners creates avenues for victims to get out of the dehumanizing exploitation that is prostitution. These combined resources combat human trafficking activity and better protect the vulnerable while providing opportunities to prosecute those who prey on them.”

K9 Amigo Deployment Summary

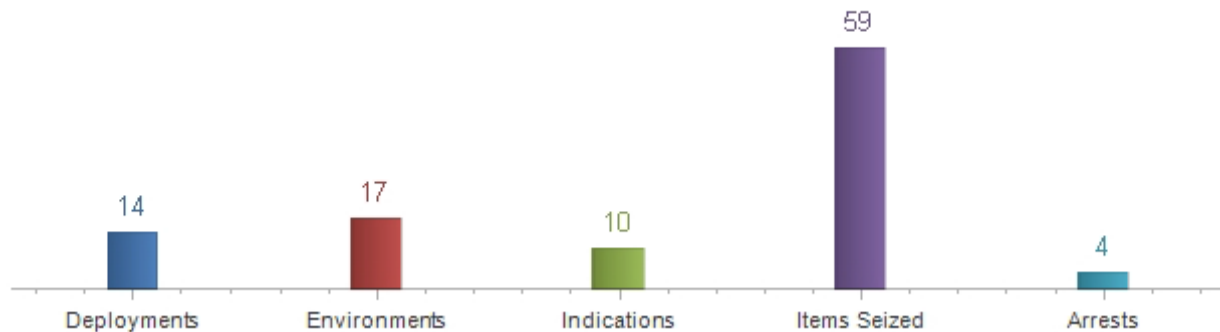

During the month of August, Amigo and his handler conducted 14 detection deployments with 10 indications, resulting in the seizure of over 50 items and four arrests.

Officer Rehnert attended the K9 HITS (Handler Instruction and Training Seminar) conference this month. This national conference is known as one of the largest K9 training events and was great experience, as Officer Rehnert attended many classes and training sessions.
