Special Olympics Football

The New Albany Police Department along with the Plain Township Fire Department and New Albany High School Varsity Football team participated in the annual flag football game with the New Albany Special Olympics team. Officer Kelly coordinated a volunteer effort for the game and many department members joined as they love to engage with the athletes.

Range Day

All officers attended firearms training this month. Their training focused on proficiency with department issued rifles, threats, maneuverability and accuracy. Officers practiced problem solving, weapon malfunctions, participated in the use of cover scenarios and continued building familiarity with agency rifles.

First Responder Appreciation Day

The department would like to thank the PTO from the Early Learning Center, Primary and Intermediate School for celebrating First Responder Appreciation Day. The PTO provided the department with lunch, snacks and handwritten notes and cards from the students in the schools. We are proud to serve the New Albany Plain Local School district and appreciated their support on this day.
