DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

September 2022

Presidential Visit

On September 9th, President Joe Biden visited the city for the groundbreaking of the Intel development, which is Ohio's largest-ever economic development project. The department worked with the United States Secret Service, Licking County Sheriff's Office, and many other law enforcement agencies to ensure the event was secure. The event took place days before the New Albany Walking Classic, a large community event requiring most of the department personnel. The department's staff worked a significant number of hours that week and demonstrated their professionalism and commitment to our mission. Their work was vital in ensuring successful and safe events.

Community Events– Walking Classic, Oktoberfest, A&F Challenge

A number of community events were held around the city this month. The department provided security and traffic control for the A&F Challenge, Oktoberfest and the New Albany Walking Classic. All events were well attended and were successful with no significant issues.

New Dispatcher

The New Albany Police Department's communication center welcomed its newest dispatcher this month, Megan Sinclair. Megan comes to the department with law enforcement experience from San Francisco. She will begin her training this month.
