Toy Drive

The New Albany Police Department hosted a toy drive in partnership with New Albany High School student, Gwen Mouat. Gwen was born with a condition called propionic acidemia. She started a toy drive last year as her “wish” through A Special Wish Foundation because she loves helping kids. The department loved her story and wanted to help her collect as many toys as possible. The event was a success with over 750 toys were collected and donated to Toys for Tots Columbus.

The department would like to thank everyone who donated toys and to Card My Yard New Albany, who donated their signs for our event.

PELC Graduation

Sergeant Fernander graduated from the Police Executive Leadership College (PELC) this month. PELC is a three week executive leadership program and is designed to develop dynamic leaders by teaching them how to practically apply leadership concepts. Sergeant Fernander completed the rigorous training while maintaining his patrol shift and field training a new officer. Congratulations, Sergeant Fernander!

Mother’s Against Drunk Driving Award

Officer Rehnert was selected among many nominees as the recipient of the 2022 MADD Award of Excellence. The Award of Excellence is presented to officers, judges, prosecutors, and prominent citizens in Ohio who have made a significant impact in their respective communities to stop impaired driving. Officer Rehnert was nominated by Sergeant Fernander for his outstanding achievements concerning impaired drivers.

DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Night Range Training

Officers participated in night range training this month. They conducted their annual TASER certification and practiced low light shooting/flashlight manipulation. It is important for officers to train in low light and in varied conditions since the majority of life-threatening and lethal force situations will occur in low-light conditions. The ability of officers to utilize flashlights and available resources can help improve situational awareness and improve real life outcomes.

Operation Santa’s Sleigh

Detective Southers and Officer Duncan participated in the event this month. As part of Operation Santa’s Sleigh, area police and fire departments drive slowly around Children’s Hospital locations with their emergency lights on and playing Christmas music to brighten the spirits in the hospitals.
