DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

May 2023

Police Week

The department celebrated National Police Week this month, which recognizes officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty while serving their community. The department would like to thank those who took the time to honor our officers this week. Mayor Spalding delivered a proclamation at the May 16th City Council meeting declaring Police Week and Peace Officer Memorial Day on May 15th in the City of New Albany.

As part of the Light Ohio Blue campaign, the department participated in the Light Ohio Blue cruiser caravan through Franklin County. Light Ohio Blue is a statewide campaign to show support to the law enforcement personnel who protect our communities throughout the state. It gives the opportunity to honor and pay respects to the officers who have died in the line of duty, as well as those currently serving.

The course was well attended and was one of the more dedicated groups of women that have attended a class. The department is proud to empower women of all ages in the community.
