CALEA

On Saturday, November 11th, the Commission on Accreditation of Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA) voted to award the New Albany Police Department its second accreditation. The re-accreditation award letter stated, “We commend you and your agency for demonstrating a commitment to professional excellence in policy and practice. It is a privilege to award your agency CALEA accreditation, which is accomplished through a highly regarded and broadly recognized body of professional standards.”

The successful re-accreditation was due to the work of the department’s staff who work to develop, implement, and execute the best practices brought about by the process of becoming and maintaining accredited. Their commitment to the department’s values, mission, and culture is what sets the department apart and is foundational to its continued success.

Chief Jones, Lieutenant Daniels, Officer Catanese and Professional Standards Coordinator Fohl traveled to Bellevue, Washington to appear in front of the commissioner board as the last step in the re-accreditation process.
