DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

September 2023

Softball Tournament

The department participated in the inaugural First Responders Softball Tournament hosted by the Pataskala Police Department. The tournament was created to support their department's Shop with a Cop program. Although NAPD didn't take home the win, the department was proud to support the good cause and interact with other local area police departments.

K9 Vest

The department would like to thank Brady's K9 Fund for generously donating a ballistic vest to K9 Amigo. The organization was founded by an 8 year old boy who believes that K9s "deserve to be protected by a ballistic vest for their entire shift, just like their human partners, so that they both can come home safe together."

Officer Rehnert and K9 Amigo are thankful to have been a recipient of a vest this year, joining over 850 other K9s Brady's K9 Fund has helped.

Human Trafficking Operation

The department conducted a human trafficking operation on September 25th. Ten arrests were made, two guns were recovered, and a variety of drugs were seized. This latest operation is part of the sustained effort to help victims of human trafficking, provide aid and options to individuals involved in the dangerous work of prostitution, and prosecute those who exploit them. The department's efforts were part of a statewide operation with the goal of battling human exploitation.

"Law enforcement across Ohio teamed up in a concerted effort to stem the demand that fuels human trafficking," Yost said. "The success of this operation is measured not only by the number of arrests but also by the resources offered to survivors of human trafficking and the intelligence gathered that will propel long-term investigations forward."

Attorney General
