Police Week/Peace Officer Memorial Day

The city and the department celebrated National Police Week this month, which recognizes officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty while serving their community. Mayor Spalding delivered a proclamation at the May 7th City Council meeting declaring May 15th as Peace Officer Memorial Day in the City of New Albany. The department would like to thank those who took the time to honor and appreciate the officers during this week.

As part of Police Week, the department participated in the Light Ohio Blue cruiser caravan throughout Franklin County. Light Ohio Blue is a statewide campaign that works to show support for law enforcement personnel and gives an opportunity to honor and pay respect to officers who are currently serving and those who have died in the line of duty. Officer Suarez represented the New Albany Police Department in the caravan this year.

Founders Day

On May 11th, the department assisted with the annual New Albany Founder's Day event. Officers led the parade, worked to direct traffic and patrolled both on foot and bike during the event. The department also provided Child ID cards to families at the festival. Despite the poor weather to start the day, the event was successful with a large turnout.

D.A.R.E. Graduation

400 fifth grade students graduated from the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) program on May 14th. Officer Warner, the department's D.A.R.E. Officer teaches these classes for each 5th grade class, teaching students good decision making skills, how to resist peer pressure and live productive violence and drug free lives.
