Police Week/Peace Officer Memorial Day

The city and the department celebrated National Police Week this month, which recognizes officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty while serving their community. Council Member Matt Shull (President Pro Tempore) delivered a proclamation at the May 6th City Council meeting declaring May 15th as Peace Officer Memorial Day in the City of New Albany. The department would like to thank those who took the time to honor and appreciate the officers during this week.

As part of Police Week, the department participated in the Light Ohio Blue cruiser caravan throughout Franklin County. Light Ohio Blue is a statewide campaign that works to show support for law enforcement personnel and gives an opportunity to honor and pay respect to officers who are currently serving and those who have died in the line of duty.
