Touch a Truck

New Albany's annual Touch A Truck event was held on August 23rd with almost 1900 people in attendance. Officer Mills and Hall were present to display a police cruiser and the department's drone trailer for children to learn and interact with. Police Clerks Sarah Devonshire and Katie Hall also provided Child IDs at the event.

Dispatcher Mercer Retirement

The department said goodbye to Dispatcher Anita Mercer, who has served the citizens of New Albany for 30 years. During her tenure with the department, Anita served as a police clerk and dispatcher. She trained many new team members as a Certified Training Officer (CTO) and is mainly known for always going above and beyond, assisting her co-workers with projects and being there for them in their time of need. Many of Anita's family members, co-workers and friends came to bid her farewell and congratulate her on a successful 30 years with the city. We will miss Anita and wish her well!

Officer Hiring

The department hired three police officer recruits this month: Randy Lytle, Jacob Poole and Matthew Fries. They began their academy training at the Central Ohio Technical College and will be there for the next few months as they complete their Ohio Peace Officer Basic Academy Training. Upon graduation, they will return to the department for their field training program.

Commercial Vehicle Enforcement

On August 19th, the department conducted commercial vehicle enforcement with the Ohio State Highway Patrol and the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio. Three of our officers participated in the enforcement detail, conducting 12 commercial traffic stops. Officers issued several warnings for a variety of violations, three citations and one truck was placed out of service for equipment issues.
