DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

September 2025

National Police Woman Day

The department celebrated National Police Woman Day, honoring our four female officers: Emilee Downing, Hope Mills, Sara Coakley and Jill Peters. Their service and dedication to our department help make our community a safer place each day!

Leadership New Albany

Records Supervisor Laura White was celebrated in September for completing the eight-month Leadership New Albany program. Participants broadened their knowledge of the city by learning about its past and present and gaining an understanding of its business, economic, civic, and government inner workings, while focusing on strong professional leadership development. Monthly topics included community master planning, local government, business and economic development, service, health and wellness, education, and history, arts, and culture.
